APPLICATION

The Nina M. Nolcox Nursing Scholarship for Continuing Education

Application Closing Date: August 22, 2018 at 5:00 PM

Section I. Purpose of the Scholarship Fund

The purpose of this year's Nina M. Nolcox Nursing Scholarship is to award a qualified nurse, employed by a CAADS member, a paid registration to attend the CAADS 2018 Fall Conference/Annual Membership Meeting and a stipend of $750 to cover related expenses. Nina Nolcox was a visionary in public health nursing and devoted her passion and skills to serving low income adults with chronic health conditions.

To honor the legacy of Nina M. Nolcox, RN, PHN, ideal applicants will:

- Exemplify nursing leadership
- Display a passion for service
- Demonstrate a commitment to enhancing quality care for participants
- Promote innovative nursing practices in the adult day setting

The Nina M. Nolcox Scholarship Fund Committee does not discriminate in the selection of scholarship recipients on the basis of age, race, creed, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, or any other prohibited basis.

Section II. Scholarship Amount

Individual scholarship award is $750, plus a paid registration to attend the CAADS Fall Conference and Annual Membership Meeting, Nov 6 - 8, 2018, at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Anaheim, CA.

Announcement and introduction of scholarship recipient/s will be made at the CAADS Conference during the Annual Membership Meeting. It is expected that scholarship recipient will share key learnings from the Conference with team members upon return to their center.

Important Note: Funds received in the form of scholarships may be subject to personal tax. Seek advice from a tax professional.

Section III. Eligibility

Applicant Must:

- Be a Licensed Nurse in good standing with applicable Nursing Board.
Nurse is defined as either:
Licensed Vocation Nurse (LVN)
licensed by Board of Vocational Nursing and Psychiatric Technicians
Registered Nurse (RN)
licensed by California Board of Registered Nursing
- Be employed by and currently working at an Adult Day Services center which is in membership and in good standing with CAADS.
Contracted (outsourced) nurses are ineligible to apply.
- Past recipients of the Nina M. Nolcox Scholarship are ineligible to apply

Section IV. Application Content

The Nina M. Nolcox Scholarship Application must be completed and submitted with:

A. Essay

An essay, 750 words or less and double-spaced with one-inch margins using a 12 point font (Times New Roman or Arial), is required. In the essay, please answer the following questions:

1. Why did you choose the adult day services setting for your nursing practice?
2. How has your work in the Adult Day Services setting impacted your life both professionally and personally?
3. What role have you played in influencing nursing leadership or the quality of care at your Adult Day Services center?
4. What suggestions do you have to help promote more nursing participation and leadership in Adult Day Services settings?

B. Resume

Please submit your current resume and include all relevant volunteer and extracurricular activities, professional associations and affiliations.

C. Letters of Recommendation – Two (2)

Please provide two (2) letters of recommendation.

One letter must be from the organization’s Executive Director/CEO or the person who supervises you at your center, and include the following statement:

Should applicant be selected as a scholarship recipient, our organization will pay for any travel expenses in excess of the award recipient’s $750 stipend, and grant time for the recipient to travel to and from and attend the CAADS Conference.

- Each letter should address how applicant has displayed nursing leadership qualities and made an impact on the center's performance, with specific examples of contributions to quality of participant care.
- Each letter should include a statement about how applicant would benefit from the Nina M. Nolcox Nursing Scholarship.
